The State Agency on Intellectual Property (AGEPI) and the National Agency for Quality Assurance in Education and Research (ANACEC) organize on November 19, 2021, a webinar entitled “Plagiarism and Copyright”.

The webinar is dedicated to students, teachers, researchers, as well as all those interested in plagiarism, copyrights and infringement thereof. The purpose of the event is to familiarize participants with current approaches in regulating the field of copyright and development trends of the system, as well as mechanisms for preventing plagiarism in the academic environment of the Republic of Moldova and Romania.

The event is organized with the support of the European Union Project “Support for Structured Policy Dialogue, Coordination of the Implementation of the Association Agreement, and Enhancement of the Legal Approximation Process” and is part of the program of related events held within the framework of the International Specialized Exhibition “INFOINVENT-2021”.

The webinar will be held in Romanian, starting at 10:00. Participation is free. Those wishing to attend the event are invited to register at the following address: https://forms.gle/kbsT9ox781DBpXKw7 [1]. The details of access to the webinar will be sent to the address indicated in the registration form immediately after completing it.

More details on the Webinar “Plagiarism and Copyright” and other events organized within the ISE “INFOINVENT-2021” are available on the website of the exhibition https://infoinvent.md/assets/files/program/program_Infoinvent-2021_en.pdf [2].
