The 23rd edition of the annual Scientific-Practical Symposium “AGEPI Readings” will take place on April 19-20, 2022, in online format. The event is organized by the State Agency on Intellectual Property (AGEPI) and is part of the series of events dedicated to World Intellectual Property Day, marked annually on April 26. “Intellectual Property and Youth - Innovating for a Better Future” is the motto of World Intellectual Property Day 2022.

This year’s symposium “AGEPI Readings” is also part of the activities dedicated to the 30th anniversary of the founding of AGEPI, with the main title “Trends and Challenges in the Development of the National Intellectual Property System - 30 Years since its Establishment”.

The Symposium may be attended by specialists working in the field of intellectual property (IP), as well as representatives of institutions and organizations in the field of science and innovation, central public administration authorities with responsibilities in the field of enforcement of intellectual property rights, authorized intellectual property attorneys and counsellors, inventors, teachers, students, masters and other interested parties.

The event is a good opportunity to promote new developments in the field of intellectual property, to exchange experiences, information and good practices, to identify new perspectives for the efficient management of the biggest intellectual property challenges.

We invite you to join us in addressing issues relevant to the field of intellectual property, including the protection of IP rights and the procedures for granting them, enforcement of intellectual property rights, legal practice in resolving IP disputes, economic aspects related to evaluation and management of intellectual property objects, modern tools for using and promoting intellectual property, etc.

The registration of the participants will be done by filling in the registration form. Participation in the symposium is free of charge. The event will take place in Romanian, on the WEBEX platform.

The deadline for registration for the Symposium and submission of communications for presentation at the Symposium is April 4, 2022.
