07/30/2025 Information

The State Agency on Intellectual Property (AGEPI) invites representatives of the academic environment, researchers, innovators and all those interested to participate in the 12th edition of the International Scientific Conference “Yesterday’s Cultural Heritage - Implications for the Development of Tomorrow’s Society”, organized by the Academy of Sciences of Moldova, in partnership with prestigious institutions from Moldova, Romania, Ukraine and Germany.

The event will take place from 18 to 19 September 2025, in the context of the European Heritage Days, and will include a series of scientific sessions organized simultaneously in a hybrid format in Chisinau, Iași and Lviv.

One of the discussion sessions within the conference “Valorization of heritage through intellectual property rights” aims to explore the role of intellectual property rights in protecting, valorizing and promoting cultural heritage, bringing together presentations, case studies and good practices from specialists in the field.

AGEPI encourages you to register for the event and contribute to debates on the protection and valorization of cultural and intellectual heritage.

For more information about the conference, including details on registration, publication requirements, we invite you to consult the invitation of the Academy of Sciences of Moldova, available here: https://asm.md/index.php/patrimoniu-ce-ne-identifica-invitatie-la-conferinta-stiintifica-internationala-patrimoniul-cultural [1]

The deadline for submission of articles for publication is 20 August 2025.
