In the activities dedicated to promoting access to information and conduct the seventh edition of the Days of the right to know with the main title “An active person is a well-informed person”, organized by the Center for Promotion of Freedom of Expression and Access to Information “Access-info” in collaboration with other NGOs and authorities / public institutions in the period September 27 to October 3 this year, the State Agency on Intellectual Property Exhibition organized the Book Fair “Editorial News in the Field of Intellectual Property”.

The exhibition will take place at the Intellectual Property Information Retrieval Center (IPIRC) of AGEPI (24/1, Andrei Doga Str., Floor 5, office 507), in the period September 28 to October 1, at 10.00-16.00. At the exhibition will be exhibited the most relevant publications in the field of intellectual property, both on paper and electronically, entered in the collection of AGEPI IPIRC in the last 2-3 years.

Also, AGEPI invites the interested persons to participate in activities that will take place at the Intellectual Property Information Retrieval Center of AGEPI in the Open Door Day, on 30 September, between 10.00 and 16.00. During the day everyone is entitled to request consultations regarding sources of information retrieval in the field of protection of intellectual property objects; how to access the national and international databases in the field; the national and international regulatory and legislative framework in the field of protection and respect for IP rights, etc.; services rendered by AGEPI.

The team of AGEPI specialists is open for communication; do not miss the opportunity to multilaterally inform yourself in IP field. Welcome to AGEPI!
