01/12/2012 Events

On January 12, 2012 the new version of the AGEPI website was launched. The site was renewed according to the recommendations of the EU experts within the TWINNING Project “Support to the implementation and enforcement of intellectual property rights in the Republic of Moldova”.

The content and structure of the site were improved with new specialized sections, targeted at different types of stakeholders in the field of intellectual property.

Source URL: https://www.agepi.md/en/news/new-version-agepi-website-has-been-launched