03/28/2016 Events

State Agency on Intellectual Property (AGEPI) will open its doors to visitors on Monday, April 4, from 09:00 to 16:00.

The event aims to raise society awareness of the role and place of intellectual property in economic, social and cultural development of the country and the need for protection and enforcement of intellectual property rights in the Republic of Moldova.

During the day, visitors will be informed about the AGEPI activity, benefit of the protection of inventions, trademarks, industrial design, copyright, etc., will be given consultations on sources of information and documentation in the field of protection of intellectual property objects and how to access national and international databases.

On the occasion of the Open Day, visitors will be able to leave messages in the Book of suggestions and express their expectations about the activity of the State Agency on Intellectual Property.

Admission is free. AGEPI pursues then object that the Open Day becomes a tradition.

This event takes place in the context of activities devoted to World Intellectual Property Day in the Republic of Moldova, which traditionally is celebrated on April 26. World Intellectual Property Day theme this year is “Digital Creativity: Culture Reimagined”.

Persons interested in visiting the State Agency on Intellectual Property are asked to complete the form, in electronic format, at the following address: https://goo.gl/ka8uBV [1]

We are waiting for you and thank you for joining us, contributing to the development of intellectual property field.

[2]

Source URL: https://www.agepi.md/en/news/open-day-agepi