On April 27, we celebrate the Day of State Flag of the Republic of Moldova – the Tricolor - the national symbol of our country which in 1990 was officially designated the State Flag of the Republic of Moldova by the deputies of the first Legislative.

The State Flag symbolizes the past, the present and the future of the Moldovan state, reflects its democratic principles, the historical tradition of the people, the equality of rights, the friendship and the solidarity of all the citizens of the republic. The Tricolor is hoisted on the edifices of official state institutions, at ceremonies and solemnities, and sums up all aspirations for freedom and democracy of our citizens, plenary affirmation and consolidation of the statehood of the Republic of Moldova.
