The 5th edition of the Korea International Youth Olympiad 4i (KIYO) will take place in the period 5-10 October, 2020. In the circumstances of the coronavirus pandemic, the event will take place online.

KIYO offers young inventors the opportunity to share their ideas, inventions, innovations and intellectual property objects and provides an excellent communication platform in various technical and scientific fields.

Young people interested in participating in the Olympiad must apply by September 20, 2020.

For more information on the event, including participation conditions and logistical arrangements, access the site: https://en.kiyo4i.com/ [1].

The event is organized by the World Women Inventors and Entrepreneurs Association of Korea (WWIEA) with the support of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO), the Eurasian Patent Organization (OEAB), the International Federation of Inventors' Associations (IFIA), Seoul National University and other partners.

The State Agency on Intellectual Property (AGEPI) encourages young inventors from the Republic of Moldova to participate in international exhibitions and competitions and to use this tool to promote their own innovative projects with maximum efficiency.
