On 29 December 2015, within the State Agency on Intellectual Property (AGEPI) was held the festive meeting for granting the completion certificates of the general training course in intellectual property, carried out between September and December 2015.

The training courses are organized annually by the AGEPI and aim at informing, instructing, training and upgrading experts in intellectual property. Upon completion of the courses the graduates are granted the qualification of “Counsellor in Intellectual Property”.

Following the current edition of the course, 13 persons have been qualified as "Counsellor in Intellectual Property". Among the newly-qualified councellors are AGEPI experts, lawyers and other natural persons from the Republic of Moldova.

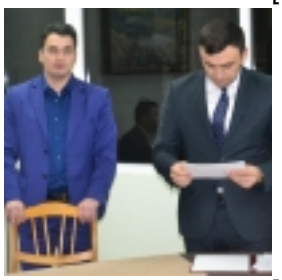

The Director General of AGEPI, Mr. Octavian Apostol, congratulated the graduates on the completion of the training courses and the newly-gained qualification, wishing them success in their counselling activity and promotion of intellectual property objects.

At the same time, Mr.Andrei Popa, Counsellor to the Director General, chairman of the Examination Committee, urged the graduates to base their activity in intellectual property on their professionalism, as this was the aim of organizing the training course.

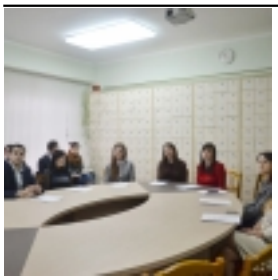

In turn, graduates remarked the lecturers` professionalism, the quality of teaching, the necessity and value in their professional activity of the knowledge in intellectual property acquired during the training courses, agreeing on strengthening future cooperation with the AGEPI.

The course curriculum included seven disciplines relating to intellectual property, with a total of 168 hours.
