

Codes for the Identification of Different Kinds of Patent Documents

Codes for the Identification of Different Kinds of Patent Documents According to WIPO Standard ST.16, Published by AGEPI

1.1 Codes for Patent Documents:

A0 - Patent application published before the established term of 18 months after the filing date or recognized priority date

A1 - Patent application published within the established term with search report

A2 - Patent application published within the established term without search report

A3 - Search report of a patent application (published after publication of the application)

A8 - Patent application with corrections or amendments in the title (bibliographic) page of the document

A9 - Patent application with corrections or amendments of any part of the document

B1 - Granted patent for invention

B2 - Granted patent for invention, amended after opposition procedures

B8 - Granted patent for invention, with corrections or amendments in the title (bibliographic) page of the document

B9 - Granted patent for invention, with corrections or amendments of any part of the document

C1 - Issued patent for invention

C3 - Issued patent for invention, amended after limitation or cancellation procedures

C8 - Issued patent for invention, with corrections or amendments to the front (bibliographic) page of the document

C9 - Issued patent for invention, with corrections or amendments of any part of the document

F1 - Patent for invention granted at the applicant's responsibility without substantive examination

F2 - Patent for invention granted at the applicant's responsibility without substantive examination and following a published patent application

G2 - Patent for invention granted at the applicant's responsibility without substantive examination

G8 - Patent for invention issued at the applicant's responsibility, with corrections or modifications in the title (bibliographic) page of the document

G9 - Patent for invention granted at the applicant's responsibility without substantive examination, with corrections or amendments of any part of the document

M - Supplementary protection certificate for pharmaceutical or phytosanitary products

T1 - Translation of claims of a European patent application

T2 - Translation of a validated European patent specification

T3 - Translation of a validated European patent specification maintained in amended form

T4 - Translation of a validated European patent specification maintained in limited form

T8 - Corrected translation of a validated European patent specification, with corrections in the title (bibliographic) page of the document

T9 - Corrected translation of a validated European patent specification, with corrections of any part of the document

1.2 Codes for Short-Term Patent Documents:

U0 - Short-term patent application published before the established term of 18 months after the filing date or recognized priority date

U1 - Short-term patent application published within the established term with search report

U2 - Short-term patent application published within the established term without search report

U3 - Search report of a short-term patent application (published after publication of the application)

Y - Granted short-term patent for invention

Y3 - Granted short-term patent for invention, amended after opposition procedure

Y8 - Granted short-term patent for invention, with corrections or amendments in the title (bibliographic) page of the document

Y9 - Granted short-term patent for invention, with corrections or amendments of any part of the document

Z - Issued short-term patent for invention

Z4 - Issued short-term patent for invention, amended after limitation or cancellation procedures

Z5 - Extended short-term patent for invention

Z6 - Extended short-term patent for invention, amended after extension procedure

Z8 - Issued or extended short-term patent for invention, with corrections or amendments in the title (bibliographic) page of the document

Z9 - Issued or extended short-term patent for invention, with corrections or amendments of any part of the document

Codes for Patent Documents Concerning Utility Models

U - Published, unexamined utility model registration application

Y2 - Utility model registration certificate granted after examination

W1 - Utility model registration certificate granted at the applicant's responsibility

I2 - Utility model registration certificate issued at the applicant's responsibility

Z2 - Utility model registration certificate issued after examination

W8 - Issued utility model registration certificate, with corrections or modifications in the title (bibliographic) page of the document

W9 - Issued utility model registration certificate, with corrections or modifications of any part of the document